Tablet Loan Scheme 2019/20

For incoming first year students for 2019/20 (and other cohorts for Occupational Therapy and Physiotherapy) tablets are being made available for loan to facilitate student learning. St George’s, University of London expects students to use a mobile device to access course related material. Where a student would prefer to borrow a device, tablets are available for loan on an annual basis from the Library.

Rules:

- The tablet is available for loan (free of charge) for first year students during the academic year 2019/20.
- It can be borrowed from the Library Helpdesk, with a valid ID card.
- It will be issued to your library account and is your responsibility. Please inform the Library immediately if it is lost, stolen or damaged (library@sgul.ac.uk). There may be a £50 charge for lost devices.
- The tablet is on loan to you for one academic year. At the end of this time you may renew it at the Library helpdesk.
- The device should be used in line with SGUL’s IT and Data Protection policies (see SGUL website) and set up using your SGUL credentials.
- Care must be taken to ensure personal data is protected and not shared with any third party.
- Charging of the device should be undertaken with care using only the provided charger.

Legal terms and conditions:

1. The device cannot be sold or give away by you; it is the property of St George’s.
2. Any data communication arising out of the use of the Device is for you to pay.
